Be caring to patients, says MEC Magadzi

Millions of people across the world and South Africa took time to devote 67 minutes to do good on 18 July 2011 to mark Nelson Mandela's 93rd birthday.

The world renowned former statesman's birthday was celebrated through a multitudes of activities that indicated people's caring nature towards the most vulnerable sectors of our communities.

The Major government event was held at Giyani stadium where Ministers, the Limpopo premier Cassel Mathale and MEC's dedicated time to do good.

While addressing staff members on the sidelines, MEC for Health and Social Development, Mme Dikeledi Magadzi challenged them to emulate Nelson Mandela when serving patients.

"We must be able to show our caring nature when dealing with our patients, we must serve them with a smile and show some respect", said MEC Magadzi.

The MEC also reminded staff that it is important to advertise our services as a department like any other business because we are in the business of making sure that we have a healthy nation.

She further thanked all staff for bringing services such as HCT to the stadium to afford people an opportunity to test and receive other services

Festivities continued until late at the Giyani stadium where thousand of people gathered to honour the great icon of our struggle.
